INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Hope For The Warriors®

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Hope For The Warriors® (HOPE), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2022 and 2021; the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended; and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of HOPE as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of HOPE and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, HOPE adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 842, Leases, and all subsequent ASUs that modified ASC 842 as of January 1, 2022. HOPE has applied the modified retrospective method to adopt this standard during the year ended December 31, 2022, and adjusted the presentation in the financial statements as permitted by ASC 842. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

In addition, as discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, HOPE adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board ASU 2020-07, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about HOPE's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of HOPE's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about HOPE's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Hope For The Warriors®

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and 2021

1. Nature of Operations

Hope For The Warriors® (HOPE) is a not-for-profit organization incorporated in North Carolina in 2006. HOPE's mission is to help those touched by military service to succeed at home by restoring their sense of self, family, and hope. Nationally, HOPE provides comprehensive support programs for service members, veterans, and military families that are focused on transition, health and wellness, peer engagement, and connectedness to community. Funding is provided primarily by individual, corporate, and foundation contributions. HOPE program areas are:

Well-Being

HOPE's overarching goal is to enhance the quality of life for the entire post-9/11 Warrior Community. HOPE views well-being, or wellness as positive and affirming; an active process in which people become aware of, and make choices toward, a more prosperous and purposeful life. HOPE's well-being model (details below) integrates six well-being domains that were developed to meet the complex needs of the Warrior Community.

Physical Wellness

Engages the Warrior Community in staying active and physically fit through competitive sports and recreational events. HOPE connects warriors and family members to a variety of opportunities to support personal fitness and recreation goals. Whether it is running, cycling, hiking, fishing, or hunting, HOPE helps warriors to set goals and track milestones with a healthy competitive spirit.

Emotional Wellness

Often, a veteran or family member is not able to obtain treatment within their community or is hesitant to seek services from the VA or other sources of mental health care available locally. HOPE's supportive counseling is designed to provide short-term counseling to augment other treatment. Licensed social workers provide supportive clinical services to service members, veterans, caregivers, and adult family members needing interim support where a gap in services is identified.

Financial Wellness

Financial wellness programs assist and support clients during times of crisis and transitions. Clinical case management is provided throughout the process. Program staff provide support through financial grants, referrals, information about resources, supportive counseling, and sharing of knowledge and education.

Hope For The Warriors®

Notes to Financial Statements

Financial Wellness (continued)

The assistance provided is intended as a temporary support. These programs assist service members, veterans, and their families in two specific ways. First, program coordinators provide integrated case management, financial education with an emphasis on long-term financial stability, and resource referrals that assist the client both today and in the future. Second, if the client meets program eligibility criteria, financial support may be provided to assist the family in the short-term.

Life Roles

Life Roles programs support active-duty warriors and their family members primarily as they transition to veteran status. These programs address career transition, employment, and educational needs and benefits unique to warriors and military families. Many warriors and their family members face drastically different and new challenges if medically retired or designated as unemployable due to combat or service-connected injuries. Finding meaningful and satisfying work or impactful volunteer opportunities after service is critical to a warrior's overall health and wellness.

Social Support

Led by a licensed clinical social worker, this domain is the entry point for all of HOPE's wellness services supporting our Warrior Community. In less than three days from initial inquiry, the Intake Coordination team conducts intake interviews with a focus on expressed need and well-being, and then connects each applicant, as appropriate, to HOPE's physical, emotional, financial, and transition health supports, as well as community and peer support resources.

Community Connection

Integral to HOPE's continuum model, HOPE's all-veteran Military Relations team individually engages with warriors throughout their journey as part of the HOPE family. The team connects warriors to new opportunities provided by HOPE along with those of HOPE's community partners. HOPE's Ambassador Program offers opportunities for warriors to give back and support their comrades by providing 1-1 peer support. The Military Relations team helps warriors to find new ways to serve and to help warriors find where they fit and can engage in the larger community, outside of military service.

Cultural Awareness

HOPE's communications team drives the initiative to bridge the military-civilian divide through understanding of the needs of the veteran community and military families, and how the public at large can support them. The team facilitates dialogue, primarily through digital platforms, that brings awareness of and respect for the existing cultural differences and experiences. Additionally, sustained awareness of the needs of the military community results in effective programming for the DOD, Department of Veteran's Affairs, and socially-responsible corporate entities. This team informs HOPE and its partners with metrics and engagement strategies that continue that connection.

Community Development

HOPE strives to build educated communities that understand the unique needs and challenges of today's military family. HOPE collaborates with military organizations, corporations, civic groups, foundations, and individuals to improve military and veteran education and engagement. HOPE's corporate partners enjoy a rich relationship that is beneficial to their culture and feeds their military employee programs, while HOPE's individual supporters derive a personal touch to their giving.

Community Engagement

HOPE works directly at the community level to engage both military and civilian communities, uniting corporate and civil leaders, school districts, military agencies, and more to work together with a shared goal of embracing the military families within their communities. HOPE provides education and resources, both in person and virtually, to service members and their families as they transition out of the military. By developing relationships within the community — through both events and program work — HOPE establishes connectedness to community that is also a key component of the warrior culture.

Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Hope For the Warriors

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting and Presentation

HOPE's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Net assets are reported based on the presence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions, as follows:

- Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or grantor) restrictions. The governing Board has designated, from net assets without donor restrictions, net assets for an operating reserve fund.

- Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor-) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Cash Equivalents

HOPE considers as cash equivalents all highly liquid investments, which can be converted into known amounts of cash and have a maturity period of 90 days or less at the time of purchase. Excluded from this definition are amounts held for investment.

Investments

Investments are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. Realized and unrealized gains and losses, less investment management fees, are included as a component of net investment return in the accompanying statements of activities. Donated investments are initially valued at the market value on the date received from the donor. HOPE's policy is to liquidate donated securities as soon as administratively-feasible, and therefore they are treated as operating activities in the accompanying statements of cash flows.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are due in less than one year and are recorded at net realizable value at December 31, 2022 and 2021. Management determines the allowance for doubtful accounts by identifying troubled accounts and by using historical experience. The allowance for doubtful accounts totaled $105,359 and $42,954 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Grants and Contributions Receivable

Grants and contributions receivable represent unconditional receivables and are recorded at net realizable value. Grants and contributions are recognized as revenue in the period promised. Grants and contributions receivable due in more than one year are discounted to present value based on management's estimate of the risk adjusted rate of return.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased at a cost of $1,000 or more are capitalized and recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from five to 10 years. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed when incurred.

Operating Lease

HOPE records a right-of-use asset and lease liability for its operating leases. The right-of-use asset is amortized over the shorter of the lease term or the economic life of the leased asset. The associated lease liability represents the net present value of the future amounts due under the lease, calculated using a risk-free rate of return selected based on the term of the lease. For real estate leases, nonlease components are separated from the lease components for accounting purposes. HOPE does not apply the recognition requirements under Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 842, Leases, to short-term leases.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue Accounted for in Accordance with Contribution Accounting

Grants and contributions that are unconditional are recorded as revenue when received or promised. HOPE reports grants and contributions as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Conditional contracts and grants are recorded as revenue upon meeting certain performance requirements and the incurrence of allowable qualifying expenses. HOPE recorded $810,590 and $787,111 at December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, as refundable advances in the accompanying statements of financial position related to the conditional grant for which the performance requirements had not been met.

In-kind contributions include donated materials, services, and facilities, and are recognized at fair value at the time of receipt. Amounts totaling $40,468 and $201,834 are recorded in the statements of activities as in-kind contributions revenue for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Sponsorships for special events that are nonreciprocal are recognized as contributions. For contributions, revenue is recognized when a contribution becomes unconditional. Typically, sponsorship agreements contain a right of return or right of release from obligations, should the sponsored event not take place. As such, HOPE recognizes revenue for these conditional contributions when the related event is conducted. Sponsorships received for future events are recorded as deferred sponsorships revenue in the statements of financial position.

Revenue Accounted for as Contracts with Customers

Revenue is recognized when HOPE satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good to, or performing a service for, a customer. The amount of revenue recognized reflects the consideration HOPE expects to receive in exchange for satisfying distinct performance obligations. If a performance obligation does not meet the criteria to be considered distinct, HOPE combines it with other performance obligations until a distinct bundle of goods or services exists. Fees or amounts received in advance of satisfying contractual performance obligations are reflected as deferred revenue in the statements of financial position. Revenue is recognized either over time or at the point in time that contractual obligations are met. Specifically, for the various types of contracts, HOPE recognizes revenue as follows:

Special events revenue is recognized as earned in the period in which the event takes place. Events sponsorships are comprised of exchange elements based on the benefits received, including run registrations, banner and booth display, and advertisement.

Revenue Accounted for as Contracts with Customers (continued)

Cohen Veterans Network clinic revenue is recognized as earned in the period the clinical service is provided to the veterans. The provisions for contractual adjustments and discounts are recognized on accrual basis and are deducted from gross program service fees to determine net program service fees.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. The statements of functional expenses present the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred, and approximated $278,056 and $165,873 during the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the 2021 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2022 presentation. These reclassifications have no effect on the change in net assets previously reported.

Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). From a lessee perspective, the new guidance is intended to increase transparency and comparability by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities in the statements of financial position and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. ASU 2016-02 requires lessees to report a right-of-use asset along with a lease liability for both operating and finance leases. FASB has issued ASUs subsequent to ASU 2016-02 to further clarify and improve Topic 842.

Upon the adoption of Topic 842 on January 1, 2022, HOPE recorded an initial right-of-use asset for two operating office leases of $548,063, an initial lease liability of $540,399, and a reduction of accrued rent receivable of $7,664 related to its existing office lease (see Note 8). The adoption of Topic 842 had no impact on previously reported net assets. HOPE elected to apply practical expedients allowing it to 1) not reassess whether any expired or existing contracts previously assessed as not containing leases are, or contain, leases; 2) not reassess the lease classification for any expired or existing leases; and 3) not reassess initial direct costs for any existing leases. HOPE also elected to apply the practical expedient to use hindsight in determining the lease term.

In September 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-07, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets, which is intended to increase transparency of contributed nonfinancial assets for nonprofit entities through enhancements in presentation and disclosure requirements. Nonprofit entities will be required to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line item in the statements of activities, apart from contributions of cash and other financial contributions. Nonprofit entities will also be required to disclose various information related to contributed nonfinancial assets. HOPE has implemented ASU 2020-07 in 2022. There were no changes as a result of the implementation. The implementation had no impact on previously reported net assets.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, HOPE has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through April 13, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

HOPE strives to maintain liquid financial assets to meet 90 days of operating expenditures. As part of its liquidity plan, HOPE invests cash and cash equivalents in excess of daily requirements in various short-term investments. In addition, as described in Note 11 to the financial statements, HOPE maintains a flexible line of credit with its investment institution that is collateralized by HOPE's investment portfolio, and a committed line of credit in the amount of $50,000 that it could draw upon in the event of an unanticipated liquidity need.

4. Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject HOPE to significant concentrations of credit risk consist of cash and cash equivalents, and investments. HOPE maintains cash deposit and transaction accounts, along with investments, with various financial institutions and these values, from time to time, exceed insurable limits under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). HOPE has not experienced any credit losses on its cash and cash equivalents, and investments to date as it relates to FDIC and SIPC insurance limits. Management periodically assesses the financial condition of these financial institutions and believes that the risk of any credit loss is minimal.

5. Investments and Fair Value Measurement

HOPE follows FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, for its financial assets. This standard establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Fair value measurement standards require an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs (such as quoted prices in active markets) and minimize the use of unobservable inputs (such as appraisals or other valuation techniques) to determine fair value. The categorization of a financial instrument within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the instrument and does not necessarily correspond to the entity's perceived risk of that instrument.

The inputs used in measuring fair value are categorized into three levels. Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities and have the highest priority. Level 2 is based upon observable inputs other than quoted market prices, and Level 3 is based on unobservable inputs. Transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy are recognized at the end of the reporting period.

In general, and where applicable, HOPE uses quoted prices in active markets for identical assets to determine fair value. This pricing methodology applies to Level 1 investments.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

Operating Leases

In April 2016, HOPE entered into a lease agreement for office space located in Springfield, Virginia. The terms of the lease contained provisions for reduced rent for the first 10 months, rent escalations, and was set to expire in 2022. In January 2020, the lease agreement was amended to reduce the size of the office space rented and extend the term of the lease through March 31, 2025. In December 2020, the lease agreement was amended one more time to defer base rent for a period of three months starting December 2020 through February 2021 to be payable in 12 monthly installments commencing March 1, 2021. The unamortized portion of the cumulative difference between the actual rent paid and the straight-line rent was reflected as accrued rent receivable in the accompanying statements of financial position for the year ended December 31, 2021.

In addition, HOPE entered into an office space lease agreement in Jacksonville, North Carolina for a period of five years commencing on February 1, 2018 and expiring on January 31, 2023, with a base monthly payment of $2,048. In December 2022, the lease agreement was amended to extend the term of the lease through December 31, 2025, with a base monthly payment of $3,975.

HOPE also leases an office space in Houston, Texas, which is on a month-to-month basis for a monthly payment of $125.

On January 1, 2022, HOPE adopted Topic 842 and recorded a right-of-use asset and a lease liability in the accompanying statements of financial position for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Total occupancy expense (including storage, utilities, and other occupancy costs) under these operating leases was $175,421 and $143,858 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

9. Paycheck Protection Program Loan

Under the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) administered by the Small Business Administration (SBA), on May 4, 2020, HOPE received $919,900 from Legacy Bank. The loan was subject to full forgiveness upon use of the funds for payroll and other eligible costs and compliance with certain limitations on payroll and staffing reductions over a 24-week period. As such, HOPE accounted for this loan as a conditional contribution. As of December 31, 2020, the conditions had been substantially satisfied and the related loan was recognized as grant revenue. On March 12, 2021, HOPE applied for forgiveness of the first loan under the PPP. The forgiveness application was approved by the SBA on May 24, 2021.

11. Lines of Credit

HOPE maintains a $50,000 unsecured line of credit with a bank for the purposes of working capital needs. The line of credit is renewable every year. Borrowings under this line bear interest at the Wall Street Journal prime rate plus 2.00% (5.25% at both December 31, 2022 and 2021). There was no outstanding balance on this line of credit at December 31, 2022 and 2021.

In addition, HOPE has a flexible line of credit with its investment institution that is secured by an investment portfolio. This line of credit does not require principal payments; however, the investment institution may sell the underlying collateral to settle a collateral call without notice to HOPE. Interest accrues at approximately 4%, which is a variable rate based on the one-month LIBOR. There was no outstanding balance on this line of credit for both years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

15. Joint Costs

HOPE's sponsored run and annual gala include programmatic activities together with a request for contributions in support of HOPE's mission. The costs of conducting these activities included joint costs not directly attributable to any single function. Those costs were allocated among the functional expense categories as follows for the years ended December 31:

16. Allocation of Expenses from Management and General Activities

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include personnel costs, which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort. Expenses that benefit all aspects of HOPE are allocated based upon the percentage of salaries for that program or activity relative to total HOPE salaries.

17. Income Taxes

HOPE is recognized as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from income taxes on net unrelated business activities. No tax expense is recorded in the accompanying financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, as there was no significant unrelated business income. Management has evaluated HOPE's tax positions and has determined that HOPE has taken no uncertain tax positions that require either recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.
